

Sunday Morning

THE SUNDAY MORNING SHOW – September 2026

The control tower of life is the mind. What we think directs what we do. Our thoughts determine how we perceive God, others, ourselves, and circumstances. We cannot control people or most situations. Led by the Holy Spirit, we can choose what to think and how to respond. We must guard what comes into our minds.

We each come to God with our own life experiences and expectations. If we want to hear His voice clearly, we must first address those things that affect how well we listen.

God is speaking in the world today. Stop and think about what is in your life that could get in the way of His message. Ask Him to break through the barriers.

THE SUNDAY MORNING SHOW

September 2026

Enter God's Word through the Sunday Morning monthly publication for September 2026. Prepare your heart to enter His presence for the Word to live life each day. Will you be ready to offer grace to others when you spend time in God's presence and experience His grace freely given to you?

Our intent and purpose of the devotional is to give you faith, hope, and inspiration. It will encourage prayer and bring peace and tranquility into your life. May it be a reminder of God's love, guidance, and blessings. When God appoints a task for you, mark the date and keep your appointment with Him.

Today will be the best day of your life. Once this day is over, you can never get it back. There are two days you should never think about—yesterday and tomorrow. Grow spiritually and be blessed and thankful for the Word! We are not to be conformed to this world. Our way of life is to be free of worldly spots.

Proverbs 25:11 says, "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." Choose a Scripture that suits your situation best, and then bless another person. Show your family, friends, and others who cross your path how much you care. Take the time to choose a message that suits their situation best.

Endnote: Your Voice Matters! We love hearing from our audience! Communicate your thoughts, stories, and feedback on social media or email. Your input will grow The Sunday Morning Show.

BIBLE TAKEAWAY

There is power in us. God has chosen us to serve as vehicles through the entry made into the world.

Matthew 17

***** ♦♦ *****

God has determined your need. He evaluated the situation and determined that you needed a Redeemer.

Matthew 20

***** ♦♦ *****

Faith is the only thing in this world where there is equal opportunity. God looks at the faith that lives within your heart. You can walk with your head held high even after past failures. It is not what people say about you that makes a difference. It is what God says about you that matters.

Galatians 3

BIBLE TAKEAWAY

Change is not always an enemy. It can be God's way of saying enough is enough. He will promote you from one task to another. You will win if you remain flexible and face the changes in life with the assurance of God.

***** ♦♦ *****

True ministry is birthed when you are stripped down to your heart's desire, when something inside says, "I want my life to count for God." It is the kind of prayer that pleads, "Oh God, don't let me try to impress anyone but You."

John 13

***** ♦♦ *****

It is dangerous to be prejudiced against God. People, even believers, have often prejudged God. He is not finished yet.

Hebrews 6

BIBLE TAKEAWAY

There can be no fulfillment where there is no passion. The passion that will cause you to achieve must be strong enough to make you uncomfortable. The force of your love will provide the power to break through anything between you and the object of your passion.

Acts 5

***** ♦♦ *****

Have you ever noticed that some of the most wretched sinners have become great ministers? These people, accustomed to pursuing their passion, were people who dared to desire. Although misdirected at first, their burning desire, when unbridled and channeled, caused them to accomplish their goals.

***** ♦♦ *****

Only God knows what it takes to remove the buildup that may exist in your life. He specializes in restoring and renewing the human heart.

Matthew 9

Sunday + Morning

The control tower of life is the mind. What we think directs what we do. Our thoughts determine how we perceive God, others, ourselves, and circumstances. We cannot control people or most situations. Led by the Holy Spirit, we can choose what to think and how to respond. We must guard what comes into our minds.

We each come to God with our own life experiences and expectations. If we want to hear His voice clearly, we must first address those things that affect how well we listen.

God is speaking in the world today. Stop and think about what is in your life that could get in the way of His message. Ask Him to break through the barriers.

Do you ever wonder if faith in Jesus is the only way to be saved? Satan is a crafty liar who will twist God's Word to confuse. To steer people away from following Christ, he tries to create the impression that everyone will make it to heaven. But that is not what Scripture teaches.

God did not send His Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. He who believes in Him is not judged. He who does not believe has already been judged.

The Word of God clearly states that whoever believes in Jesus will be saved. The Bible also stresses that we make this choice during our earthly life—there will be no further opportunities once we die. If you would like to be sure of your salvation, you can invite Jesus to be your personal Savior.

FLOURISH DEVOTIONAL

PSALM 23

I felt like I was always playing catch-up with my peers. I wondered what they knew that I didn't. What secret did they have for sailing smoothly over life's hurdles? I would admonish myself, saying, "When will you get it together?" I had so many clocks ticking in my head on every birthday.

Over the years, I have met many people like me. Some people in our churches and communities dwell on what they do not have.

Today is the day to bring peace to my soul. I now understand Psalm 23:2. Too often, we go through life worried that we are missing something. We need to embrace what we already have.

God makes us stop in green pastures because, like sheep, we would not know that all is well. The true meaning in life comes from a close walk with God. Peace is the fruit of service. Your life is not the same timeline set by society. Praise God that our custom-fit cross and crown have been made to order. God's time is always on time.

THE FACELESS PULPIT! Know When to Hold Your Tongue.

Have you ever said something in the heat of the moment and wished you could take it back? Words are powerful. They can encourage, heal, build, and restore. Words can also hurt, destroy relationships, create unnecessary conflict, and leave wounds that are difficult to repair.

Sometimes, wisdom is not found in knowing what to say, but in knowing when not to say anything at all.

We live in a world where everyone seems to have an opinion—and many people feel the need to share it immediately. Someone says something about you. Someone misunderstands you. Someone criticizes you. Someone tries to provoke you. But before you respond, pause. Silence is not weakness. Silence is wisdom. Think before you speak. Before responding, take a moment to pray, think, and then breathe.

Proverbs 17:28 ■ Ecclesiastes 3:7 ■ James 1:19

BIBLE STUDY

Anger can shut down communication and break relationships apart. If suppressed, the emotion can turn into resentment. This anger will poison our thinking and behavior. When unchecked, it can boil over into an explosive rage that hurts the intended recipient and others.

While we can think of many reasons to justify our anger, the only viewpoint that matters is the Lord's. The book of Proverbs offers insight into how God views angry people. He says they act foolishly, stir up strife, and commit transgressions. He warns us not to associate with such individuals. Those slow to anger have a great understanding and demonstrate wisdom. Keeping one's distance from strife also shows honor.

In the New Testament, the apostle James compared the tongue to a spark that can set a whole forest on fire. He knew the damage a furious person could do. He also wrote that our anger does not bring about the righteous life God desires for us, nor does it fit who we are in Christ. Jesus paid our sin debt with His life to free us from sinful patterns and repercussions.

The fruit of the Spirit should replace ungodly thoughts and actions. If we have been quick-tempered, then we need to gain patience. If our anger runs hot, then we are to become peaceful people. Foolishness in speech must give way to the wisdom of Christ. We have been set free to live in a way that pleases God.

We all struggle with some form of ungodly behavior, but happily, we need not continue it. As new creations, we no longer have to be defined by who we were before salvation. To exhibit righteousness that is yours, cooperate with the Holy Spirit's transforming work.

MY LOVING SHEPHERD

He's with me in the shadows
And In the sunlight bright.
He always walks beside me;
He ever with me abides.

He is my loving shepherd
Who guides and cares for me.
We walk life's road together,
My Savior, Lord and me.

He's with me in the sad times
And In the good times, too.
In every situation.
He is a friend so true.

Lunch Box Monday

Prayer Scripture Lunch

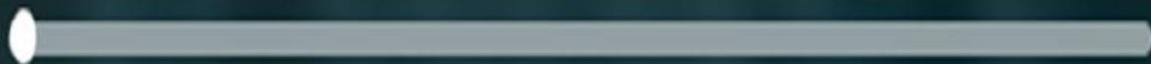

Father God, I am not sure which way to turn. Thank You for letting me bring my confusion, problems, and worries to You. Thank You for listening to me. Help me to trust You more, even when I cannot see the whole picture. Remind me that Your wisdom is just a prayer away when I am trying to figure things out on my own. Strengthen me as I walk through periods of testing. Guide me with Your wise hand as I navigate the peaks and valleys. In every circumstance, help me to remember the eternal weight of glory that You are preparing for me. Fill me with Your peace and guide my steps. I am grateful for my uncertainty. You are constant. Your world is bursting with beauty. Your creativity leaves me speechless. My heart echoes the silent song of creation and a melody of praise for You. In the light of Your promises, I face the day with renewed hope and a heart of faith. Thank You for the assurance that the troubles I may face today can't hold a candle to the glory ahead. Amen.
